From 1944 to 1957 he was reported variously employed locally. SIEGAL was described as native born, 56 years of age and married. He was described as being active in the firm on only a part time basis. TURNER was described as a partner in Turner - Tetusch Company for the past 20 years and not active in the Emergency Medical Oxygen, Incorporated. The operation of the firm was described as the manufacture of Oxygen kits with sales throughout continental United States.

PERSONAL HISTORY AND BACKGROUND

On November 21, 1958, T-1 advised that he was acquainted with LEONARD PATRICK years ago when PATRICK was a teenager in the 24th Ward located on the West Side of Chicago. There existed at this time a boys club called the Boys Brotherhood Republic (BBR). This club had its own judicial setup, whereby teenagers who committed crimes would be prosecuted and fined by this club. Two members of the BBR were NORTON POLSKY and HARRY CRATISH, who operated a crap game in a building behind the BBR. LEONARD PATRICK and DAVE YARAS at this time were connected with the Lawndale Pool Room Gang and were regarded as "tough guys". JAKE ARVEY, a rising politician and committeeman of the 24th Ward, would often call upon PATRICK and YARAS for strong armed tactics and would use them to stuff ballot boxes.

In 1934 LEONARD PATRICK was at a crap game operated by POLSKY and CRATISH, and PATRICK told POLSKY that he wanted a cut from this game. An argument followed, and PATRICK seized a broken milk bottle and thrust the jagged edge into the face of one of POLSKY's men and cut him badly. POLSKY then said that he would get even with PATRICK for this incident. Sometime later POLSKY, CRATISH, and ZUCKIE ZUKERMAN were machine gunned to death, reportedly for robbing handbooks; however, it was generally known in the neighborhood that LEONARD PATRICK was responsible for these killings due to his feud with POLSKY.

According to T-1, sometime later JAMES RAGEN, a racing wire service operator, was slain. According to the newspapers and the opinion of others in the 24th Ward, it was strongly suspected that LEONARD PATRICK and DAVE YARAS were responsible for this killing.

On December 18, 1958, T-4 advised that one [redacted]

[redacted] a group of persons who in the past have placed large bets on football games and other sports with Chicago bookmakers. [redacted] followed the practice of [redacted] in several cities other than Chicago.

b7c

According to T-4, LENNY PATRICK and DAVE YARAS decided that [redacted] with their office in Chicago. To accomplish this purpose, PATRICK and YARAS sent several persons to [redacted] with these instructions. However, [redacted] ignored these instructions with the result that PATRICK and YARAS visited him personally about the second week of December, 1958. T-4 stated that this latter visit apparently accomplished the desired result because [redacted] is now [redacted] with the Chicago office operated by PATRICK and YARAS.

b6

Miscellaneous

On December 10, 1958, T-5 advised that LENNY PATRICK controls the gambling for the syndicate in the West Roosevelt Road area and is not in the good graces of other syndicate hoodlums. According to T-5, the reason for this is that PATRICK has been muscling in on legitimate businessmen and bringing heat on the syndicate thereby.

LEGITIMATE ENTERPRISES

Supermarket Shakedown

On November 21, 1958, T-1 advised that [redacted] and [redacted] several supermarkets in the Chicago area and during August, 1957, PATRICK approached these individuals and declared himself as a partner in the supermarket business and demanded payments of $400.00 a month. According to T-1, PATRICK has an interest in the Big Bear Supermarket, 3854 West Roosevelt Road, and told [redacted] and [redacted] that their lower prices were hurting the Big Bear and that he, PATRICK, was going to make it up by collecting $400.00 a month from them. [redacted] and [redacted] Marty's Food Mart, 4038 West Roosevelt Road and several others, the names of which are not recalled, and were terrified when threatened by PATRICK since they are aware of his reputation. b6 b7C

According to T-1, [redacted] and [redacted] contacted their attorney, who in turn contacted one [redacted] attorney, who said that he would contact MURRAY HUMPHREYS, a Chicago top hoodlum, to intercede in this matter. HUMPHREYS was subsequently contacted by [redacted] and was told that everything was arranged and that [redacted] and [redacted] would not be bothered again by PATRICK. b6 b7C

A short time later victim [redacted] received a telephone call from PATRICK who said, "You went high and I'm suppose to lay off. I'm not getting off and if this gets back to these people, you will be killed." According to T-1 PATRICK is apparently a violent and impetuous individual since he showed no respect for the orders of HUMPHREYS. b6 b7C

T-1 went on to say that [redacted] attorney then contacted another syndicate individual who is considered to have powerful connections. This syndicate person reportedly said that he did not think that b6 b7C

this shakedown was a syndicate operation since it did not appear to be very smart to shakedown a legitimate business as supermarkets. This person said that a shakedown is usually performed on businesses engaged in illegal operations and who would not be in a position to complain of such. This syndicate individual then suggested to [redacted] lawyer that he contact Lieutenant [redacted] who is the acting captain of the 25th Fillmore Police District, since PATRICK could not operate in this district without the permission of Lieutenant [redacted] and [redacted] could tell PATRICK to lay off. b6 b7C

Lieutenant [redacted] was subsequently contacted by [redacted] attorney and was told of the shakedown by PATRICK. [redacted] reportedly said that if PATRICK was operating a handbook in this district he could tell PATRICK to lay off or threaten to close his handbook. According to [redacted] since PATRICK is connected with policy in this district, [redacted] said he could not do anything about it because policy is controlled in the Chicago Loop area. [redacted] also stated that he could tell PATRICK to lay off, but PATRICK is a crazy individual and would not comply. b6 b7C

[redacted] said that victims [redacted] and [redacted] could file a complaint against PATRICK for extortion; however, [redacted] and [redacted] attorneys, would take over and PATRICK would be set free. [redacted] reportedly explained that the police could offer the victims protection, however, this protection could not be indefinite, and [redacted] and [redacted] might later get hurt or killed. According to T-1, [redacted] suggested that the easiest way out was to continue to pay PATRICK if victims [redacted] and [redacted] could afford it.

T-1 further stated that victims [redacted] and [redacted] continued to pay PATRICK $400.00 a month from August, 1957, to December, 1957. These payments were made in cash from victims' personal funds and were made to JACK PATRICK, subject's brother. During December, 1957, PATRICK again called victim [redacted] and told him that there was to be an increase in the monthly payments. b6 b7C

CG 92-374

According to T-1, [] attorney then went to a high-placed politician in Chicago and was told of this shakedown situation and this politician then placed a telephone call to SIDNEY DEUTSCH, who is the City Treasurer of Chicago. DEUTSCH then personally contacted "LENNY" and reportedly told PATRICK to lay off. b6 b7C

Shortly thereafter, victim [] received another telephone call from PATRICK and was told that he, PATRICK, was again told to lay off; however, he was not going to, and if this got back to these people he would kill [] without fail. b6 b7C

According to T-1, [] attorney then contacted a "Daily News" crime reporter and told him of PATRICK's shakedown. This reporter allegedly went to PATRICK's neighborhood and interviewed PATRICK's neighbors, asking them how it felt to be living next door to a Chicago gangster. This reporter also conducted interviews at the school where PATRICK's daughters attended and took photographs to the embarrassment of PATRICK and his family. This reporter also harassed PATRICK with surveillances and told PATRICK he was going to follow him while he made his "collections" from supermarkets. According to informant, this stunt by the reporter apparently worked since PATRICK again called victim [] and told him to forget about any further payment. b6 b7C

Big Bear Foods, Incorporated

On December 1, 1958, T-6 advised that as of November 22, 1957, the officers of the Big Bear Foods, Incorporated, 3854 West Roosevelt Road, are PHILIP GERATTO, President; [] Secretary and Treasurer; and IRVING GOODKIN, Vice President. This company was incorporated in Illinois May 23, 1956, with an authorized capital of 4000 shares of no par value common stock with $50,000 payed in. Operations actually started on January 3, 1957, and the net worth of the company is $115,000, with sales estimated b6 b7C at $15,000 a week. According to these records, GERATTO, age 48, native born, was a meat market manager for Goldblatts for twelve years and prior to this was a meat market manager for Wieboldts for thirteen years. GOODKIN, age 50, prior to starting here was reported to have been the department store manager at Goldblatts for fourteen years, prior to which he owned his own produce market. [redacted] is not active here in this company.

The Chicago indices are negative on the Big Bear Foods, Incorporated, GERATTO, GOODKIN and [redacted]

b7C

On December 11, 1958, records of the Chicago Credit Bureau, Incorporated, were caused to be checked by Investigative Clerk [redacted] and reflected in a report dated December 4, 1956, that PHILIP GERATTO, also known as DE GERATTO, resides at 3207 Washington Boulevard. GERATTO within the last month has opened his own meat business known as the Big Bear Foods, Incorporated, 3825 West Roosevelt Road. GERATTO previous to this was employed at the Goldblatts Loop Store as a manager of a meat department.

On December 12, 1958, records of the Chicago Police Department were caused to be checked by Investigative Clerk [redacted] and reflected an arrest for PHILIP GERATTO, 3207 Washington Boulevard, on November 9, 1957, on a sex investigation - contributing to the delinquency of a minor. On December 17, 1957, GERATTO was given one year supervision on this charge.

b7C

On January 15, 1959, PHILIP DE GERATTO, President, Big Bear Foods, Incorporated, 3854 West Roosevelt Road, was interviewed by SAs VINCENT L. INSERRA and [redacted]. He stated that he opened this supermarket at this location about two years ago with the backing of [redacted] who is the owner of the premises and operates a supermarket fixtures store, 1141 West Madison Street. He added that other officers of this company are [redacted] and [redacted]

b6

CG 92-374

DE GERATTO went on to say that just prior to the opening of this supermarket, he was approached by two unknown hoodlums in the back alley one evening. He explained that he was attempting to obtain a liquor license for the package section of this supermarket. These persons made a threat to DE GERATTO, warning him not to obtain a liquor license if he knew what was good for him. A short time later, [redacted] telephonically contacted DE GERATTO and advised that the PATRICK brothers had contacted him and indicated that they wanted the liquor concession at this supermarket. It was also implied that if they did not get it, no liquor license would be issued to this store. According to DE GERATTO, he refused the PATRICK brothers and opened the supermarket without the liquor department.

b7C

About six months later, DE GERATTO stated that he was able to obtain a liquor license through [redacted] connections, namely ARTHUR X. ELROD, Cook County Commissioner, and SIDNEY DEUTSCH, City Treasurer. DE GERATTO also claims that he has not been bothered by PATRICK since that time and claims that LEONARD and JACK PATRICK have no interest in this supermarket.

b7C

He further stated that he is aware of the reputation of the PATRICK brothers, however, has nothing to do with this element and knows practically nothing about their activities. He recalls, however, that the PATRICKS are connected in some way with the Douglas Park Hotel on Roosevelt Road. DE GERATTO also stated that he has seen LEONARD PATRICK frequenting a restaurant in the vicinity of the 4200 block of Roosevelt Road, which is operated by two women (probably the Park Row Restaurant).

On January 16, 1959, [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] a fixture supplier of supermarkets, 1141 West Madison Street, advised that he owns the building and fixtures which are leased to DE GERATTO of the Big Bear Supermarket. [] explained that several years ago when the Big Bear first started he, [], was contacted by an emissary of LEONARD PATRICK concerning the liquor concession at this supermarket. This person implied that if the PATRICK brothers could not have this concession, the supermarket would experience difficulty in obtaining a liquor license. [] then contacted DE GERATTO, who refused to lease this concession to anyone, and the supermarket opened without the liquor department. [] said that it was his understanding that the PATRICK brothers contacted DE GERATTO again without success. [] claims that as far as he knows the PATRICK brothers have no interest in the Big Bear.

b7C

[] went on to say that ARTHUR X. ELROD, County Commissioner, who is also in the [] business, contacted him concerning the [] business of the Big Bear Supermarket. [] told ELROD that he could have this business, however, mentioned to ELROD that the Big Bear would be applying for a liquor license in the near future and would appreciate any assistance in this matter. A short time later, DE GERATTO applied for a liquor license and it is the opinion of [] that ELROD probably had something to do with it.

b7C

[] further stated that he does not know the PATRICK brothers personally and never has had any business from any of the PATRICK enterprises. He said that he believes the PATRICK brothers have an interest in the Douglas Park Hotel and Tavern as well as a supermarket located somewhere on Roosevelt Road.

b6

Miscellaneous

On March 3, 1959, T-5 advised SA LEO K. COOK that the South Haven telephone number 1406 is a pay station booth located at the intersection of Grand and Kalamazoo Avenues. Telephone number 458 is listed to a pay station located at the Sand Resort and Motel, Route 2, South Haven, Michigan. Telephone number 458 was not in use during August, 1958, and the similarity between this number number and 1458 would indicate that the operator handling the call may have written the number as 1458 rather than 458.

The telephone booth at Grand and Kalamazoo Avenues is located in a section which is composed entirely of summer hotels and resorts along Lake Michigan. The Sands is a large resort and motel located near Lake Michigan and on US Highway 31, just north of South Haven. The Cincinnati Division furnished the following information by letter dated February 18, 1959:

[redacted] was interviewed on February 2, 1959, by SAs [redacted] and [redacted]. He emphatically denied knowing or ever hearing of LEONARD PATRICK, aka., or DAVE YARAS. He just as strongly denied being contacted or visited by anyone from Chicago in the recent past or before concerning efforts to persuade him to "lay-off" bets with PATRICK's organization in Chicago. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated that years ago he operated as a bookmaker, but he has been out of that business since a year before Federal gambling stamps were required. He stated he owns and operates a $3,000,000.00 annual business in the produce market; that he would do nothing to jeopardize this business through bookmaking operations, and that he doesn't need the money anyway. He admitted that he personally bets quite heavily on sports activities such as [redacted] plays cards and dice for high stakes, but he does not "book" any bets. For that reason he does not "lay-off" bets. b6 b7C

Miscellaneous Gambling

On February 4, 1958, T-3 advised that several years ago he was in constant contact with LEONARD PATRICK at gambling activities in Melrose Park and at the Lawndale Restaurant on Roosevelt Road. During the summer of 1957, the Lawndale Restaurant was one of the centers of gambling activities in the Chicago Area. Huge card and dice games were always in operation during the evening, race wires and bookmaking in the afternoons and on fight nights large gambling activities took place in connection with these fights and other athletic events. It is to be noted that LEONARD and JACK PATRICK admittedly were owners of the Lawndale Restaurant from about 1947 to 1952, and are reported to have an interest in it at this time.

According to T-3, during 1957, LEONARD PATRICK frequented the Lawndale Restaurant and owned a small restaurant allegedly operated close to the Lawndale Restaurant, which was operated by [REDACTED] (Probably the Park Row Restaurant.)

Bingo

On March 30, 1959, CG T-5 advised SA CLIFFORD A. GRILL that he had learned of a large scale bingo operation which is being carried on at the Western Hall, 3200 block, Roosevelt Road. This is supposed to be a syndicate operation and runs on Monday, Wednesday and either Thursday or Friday nights. It is noted that the Western Hall is a two story brick building with about a 50 foot frontage at 3242-44 West Roosevelt Road. There are blinds on all of the front windows and there are two front entrances on Roosevelt Road. There are no signs or identifying data on any of the doors or windows. From the alley all of the rear doors are of steel and there are bars on all of the rear windows. This place is located in the Fillmore Police District.

CG 92-374

On April 30, 1959, CG T-5 furnished additional information regarding the gambling place at 3242 West Roosevelt Road. He said that this operation has been going strong for about four years and it is operated by two brothers known to him as LENNY and JACK (probably LEONARD and JACK PATRICK). CG T-5 stated that this place caters to both Negro and white patrons and that bingo is played on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights starting at 8:00 p.m. It is necessary, however, to get there by 6:00 p.m. in order to get a seat as there are usually about 50 persons to a table and about 10 to 12 tables in play.

The informant said that the name [] is not familiar to him. He believes that this place also operates on Tuesday and Thursday nights but to a more select crowd and it is necessary for each patron to be known to the gateman personally on these nights. CG T-5 is of the opinion that probably cards and craps are played on these evenings.

According to [] this shakedown situation no longer exists and he has not been bothered by PATRICK since. b6 b7C

On March 22, 1959, CG T-6 advised SA CURTIS A. HESTER that [] and [] hoodlums, were in Chicago last week and were attempting to locate LEONARD PATRICK. These hoodlums were apparently representing a firm known as Kiddie Kartoon Enterprises, 1566 North Handley, St. Louis, Missouri, telephone number PA 6-6366, and are attempting to sell miniature movies to supermarkets for the entertainment of children while their parents shop. Each supermarket is to be charged $45.00 per week for four ten minute films and these hoodlums felt that LEONARD PATRICK could help "sell" supermarkets on the idea since PATRICK reportedly was quite adept at using strong-arm methods to influence supermarkets in the Chicago area. He stated that he really knew nothing of criminal activities in Chicago, and that he was not important in the hoodlum circles as the newspapers indicated he was. He said that had it not been for the REAGAN incident he would not have been known by either the Police or the newspapers. He insisted that he had never killed anyone and that he really did not know any important hoodlums.

He admitted that he was well acquainted with LENNY PATRICK, as they grew up in the same section of Chicago, attended school together and were close friends. He claimed that he has not been in contact with PATRICK since he moved to California. He said that he also knew DAVE YARAS, having met him through PATRICK.

[redacted] stated that he did not care to discuss PATRICK, YARAS or any other of his former associates in Chicago. He said that he left Chicago of his own free will and no one suggested that he move except a Captain in the Chicago Police Department, a friend of his whom he declined to identify. He said that every time someone was killed in Chicago, he was rousted by the Police. The Police Captain suggested that he move and start a new life for his family. b6 b7c

[redacted] He advised that he is presently in the catering business at this address and is the former owner of the Cafe Royal, 3856 West Roosevelt Road. He said that during the time he operated the Cafe Royal, this place was frequented by LEONARD PATRICK.

[redacted] stated that he has not seen PATRICK since those days on the West Side of Chicago and could not furnish any information concerning PATRICK's activities or associates. b6 b7C

It was noted at this time that there was no equipment at this address that would indicate that a catering service was in operation. From the appearance of the store and employees it appeared that this place is a front, possibly for bookmaking activities.

LEGITIMATE ENTERPRISES

Black Angus Restaurant

It was previously reported by a source that LEONARD PATRICK has an interest in the Black Angus Restaurant, 7127 North Western Avenue.

It is also noted that CG T-1 advised during June, 1959, that JOSEPH DI VARCO, a Chicago top hoodlum, is reported to have an interest in this restaurant.

On August 28, 1959, CG T-4 advised that he heard that LEONARD PATRICK had an interest in several North Side restaurants, one of which is the Black Angus Restaurant. He said that this restaurant was bombed in 1955, and that this bombing is the method used by the Syndicate to declare itself as an owner of this restaurant.

CG T-4 advised that available records of this restaurant did not disclose PATRICK's interest due to the nature of the muscle.

On August 3 and 28, 1959, attempts were made to contact [redacted] at the Black Angus Restaurant, 7127 North Western Avenue, without success. [redacted] is the reported owner of this establishment. Requests were made during these attempts to contact to have [redacted] contact SA INSERRA with negative results. b6 b7C

In view of [redacted] alleged hoodlum connections and the fact that LEONARD PATRICK and JOSEPH DI VARCO, Chicago top hoodlums, are reported to have an interest, it is doubted that an interview in this case would be productive and no other attempts are being made to contact [redacted] b6 b7C

Park Row Hotel

On July 2, 1959, an unsuccessful attempt was made to contact [redacted] Park Row Hotel, 4142-44 West Roosevelt Road.

On July 9, 1959, [redacted] was contacted at the above hotel and advised that he is the only active partner in this hotel. His father, WILLIAM GOLDBERG, and his former [redacted] are also partners, however, they are inactive in this enterprise. b6 b7C

[redacted] claims that LEONARD PATRICK has no connection with this hotel since it has been operated by him for the past fourteen years. He explained that several years ago there was located next door to this hotel, a Park Row Restaurant, which was not affiliated with this hotel, and was a hangout for LEONARD PATRICK and other hoodlums. He said that in the past newspapers associated this hotel with the restaurant. However, no basis for this allegation exists. The Park Row Restaurant became Annette's Luncheonette, which is closed at the present time.

Concerning the Park Row Hotel Lounge, [redacted] states that to the best of his knowledge, PATRICK has not been associated with this concession. It is now being operated by a [redacted] who has been in the [redacted] for the past three months. b6 b7C

According to [redacted], he is not personally acquainted with LEONARD PATRICK and knows nothing about PATRICK's activities or associates.
